

Heartiest Congratulations to our Dear Principal!!!

On 21st March 2017 our beloved Principal Ms Diana Marfatia was felicitated by the Dadar Parsi Colony Trust which holds a function every year on Navroze and felicitates Parsis whom their trustees and committee feel have achieved something in diverse fields. Ms Diana Marfatia was felicitated for being "An Educator Par Excellence." Her colossal contribution in the field of education is a well known fact along with being loved by all who know her as an outstanding human being.

It is our great fortune to have Diana Ma'am as the lodestar of our school. She has set a benchmark for herself in the field of education and is a "living legend". We are so proud of her achievements and elated that we have an opportunity to learn from a stalwart like her. Her passion and drive is almost tangible and she has infused a spirit of dynamism in our school that will ensure that Bai Avabai Framji Petit Girls' High School will soar higher than ever before.

Congratulations again Diana Ma'am!!! We Love You!!

FELICITATIONS

DIANA MARFATIA
Educator Par Excellence

Diana Marfatia is a name that needs no introduction. In addition to being an outstanding human being, acknowledged by all to be an 'Educator Par Excellence'. Diana wears a cap cluttered with achievements in not only her chosen vocation of teaching but all activities in which she participates. Degrees & certificates, Gold Medals for not only her teaching prowess but also for being 'upright & ethical', Awards & Appreciation galore. A 'topper' in everything she undertakes.

After the completion of Post-graduation in June 1985, she has worked as a School Counselor in two schools of Bombay namely The Byramjee Jeebhoy Parsee Charitable Institution and Sir Cowasjee Jehangir School under the School Counseling Service of the Bombay Parsi Panchayet.

She was Principal cum Counselor at The B.J.P.C. Institution – Junior College. Thereafter was Headmistress-Secondary Section-ICSE at the Dr. J. R. Ambani International School. Her love for the community drew her to take on from the commencement of the academic years 2016-2017 the responsibility of being the Principal of Bai Avabai F. Petit Parsi Girls High School at Park Road, Bandra.

Additionally, Diana has since 1989 been the Coordinator of the Holiday Programme for Youth (HPY) which is a Development Programme for post-school students, under the auspices of the Bombay Parsi Panchayet. Her leadership of HPY has made it the most sought after and appreciated initiative undertaken by the BPP.

Additionally, as if she does not have enough on her plate she is presently also involved as Trustee & Hon. Secretary of the Zoroastrian Student Teacher Association (ZOSTA), Trustee, Alumni Association, The B.J.P.C. Institution and Committee Member of Zoroastrian Children's Foundation and Member, Advisory Council, XYZ.

Diana has also contributed towards bringing her peers up to speed in their vocation by writing and presenting papers:

- "Ideal School Administration" to an audience of 100 Principals & Officers of the Education Department.
- Manthan Manuals, Volumes, I & II were edited and published. These are manuals for the use and ready reference for Principals.
- A Manual on "Value Education" was co-authored, compiled and edited. A Manual was compiled and published for all schools entitled "EXAMANUAL" regarding all details of the new syllabus and Evaluation system.

All in all, Diana has become a living legend in the very important space of imparting quality education.

Great achievement is usually born of great sacrifice, and is never the result of selfishness.

NAPOLEON HILL